Acknowledgments

This is the second edition of Legal Tactics: Finding Public and Subsidized Housing. It represents the work of many people and builds on other resources and trainings that the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute has developed, including the first edition of this book (2004), Accessing Affordable Housing for Low-Income People (2001), Finding and Securing Housing for Low-Income Tenants (1999), Housing Training Manual: Finding and Securing Housing for Low-Income Tenants (1997), and several chapters in the 5th edition of Legal Tactics: Self-Defense for Tenants in Massachusetts (1993).

In particular, our thanks go to a great team of authors, who spent considerable time researching and revising material for this edition:

Mac McCreight, Greater Boston Legal Services;
Faye Rachlin, Legal Assistance Corporation of Central Massachusetts;
Ellen Shachter, Cambridge and Somerville Legal Services,
an office of Greater Boston Legal Services.

Many thanks to those who reviewed booklets within this edition and provided crucial feedback. We are grateful to Fran Frajana, Tony Winsor, and Jenifer Bosco of Massachusetts Law Reform Institute, Linda Garcia and Barbara Zimbel of Greater Boston Legal Services, Susan Hegel of Cambridge and Somerville Legal Services, Naomi Sweitzer of HomeStart, Barbara Siegel of the Disability Law Center, and Erin Deveney, General Counsel of the Criminal History Systems Board.

Several advocates and students assisted with checking the legal citations, and we couldn't publish the book without them. Thanks to Lauren Mallen of Boston University Law School, Randy Milou of Western New England College of Law, and Susan Chimene, a volunteer attorney at Cambridge and Somerville Legal Services. Special thanks to Russell Constantine of Harvard Law School for his well-timed, well-executed contributions.

Finally, this book is created with the support of our amazing team at Massachusetts Law Reform Institute, including: Lena B. Wilson and Jessie Hill, who worked tirelessly on the directory; Caroline Robinson, who enabled us to recreate the book at www.MassLegalHelp.org; and the irreplaceable Gale Halpern, who brings boundless expertise and flair as she edits and re-edits and then edits one more time.

Thank you all.
