

MASSACHUSETTS Access to Justice

Find answers to your everyday legal issues...

Massachusetts Trial Court

Law Libraries

Open to the public

Ask your librarian for help—in person, by telephone, email or online chat

Find books and online materials that will guide you through the legal process

Get a FREE library card to borrow books and videos

Find your closest Trial Court Law Library—17 locations across the state— at www.lawlib.state.ma.us

Your Local Public Library

Wherever you are, virtually there

Get help finding basic information to get your research started

Ask your local, public librarian in person, by telephone, email or online where to find legal materials

Focus your question and find the right, helpful source

Find a public library in your community at libraries.state.ma.us

MassLegalHelp.org

Promoting justice in Massachusetts with legal information

Find practical, easy to understand information about your legal rights in Massachusetts at www.MassLegalHelp.org

MassLegalServices.org

The online resource for Massachusetts poverty law advocates

Find extensive materials about laws affecting low-income Massachusetts residents at www.MassLegalServices.org

Legal Services Offices

Depending upon your income and legal problem, you may be able to get free legal services. Find your local legal services office at www.MassLegalHelp.org/find-legal-aid

Legal Advocacy and Resource Center
Greater Boston & MetroWest
800-342-5297

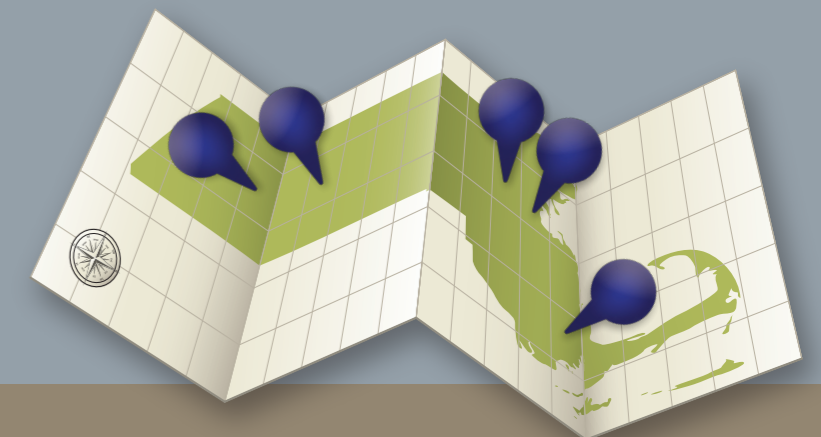

Massachusetts Justice Project
Central and Western Mass.
800-639-1209

New Center for Legal Advocacy
Cape Cod & Southeastern Mass.
800-244-9023

Neighborhood Legal Services
Northeastern Mass.
888-657-2889

Lawyer Referral Services

Massachusetts Bar Association 866-627-7577

Boston Bar Association 617-742-0625

National Lawyers Guild 617-227-7008